

Villas & Hideaways

2012

Our carefully crafted portfolio of private villas and of small intimate retreats features a selection of Crete's most charming and best-kept secrets.

Chosen for their location, character, and ambience, all our properties are unique in their own way : village cottages and restored country inns for those in search of tranquility, away from the tourist crowds; Mediterranean-style elegance for those who wish to enjoy relaxed summer living; romantic hideaways for couples and honeymooners; deluxe villas with private pools, for the upscale traveler looking for the ultimate in comfort and service.

Whether it is privacy and luxury or something earthy and off-the-beaten-track that your clients are looking for, you can be sure there is an atmospheric place to suit their request. It will be our pleasure to work for that perfect match, booking a property that is personally inspected, and offering a holiday that is complemented with our welcome service and concierge assistance throughout the stay.

Contact us with your requests to receive a swift reply with available options, full descriptions, pictures and our highly competitive rates, to offer your clients a truly authentic holiday in Crete, in line with the philosophy of unpretentious quality and personalized service Diktynna Travel is renowned for.
